about john belfield

The family has been hairdressing in the Potteries for over 100 years with Ralph Belfield (John's grandfather) being the founder, in 1908, of a small barbers shop in Stoke.

He was eventually assisted by his son, Joe, who in turn encouraged his son, John, and more recently Jonathan, into the business, making four generations of the family. Over the past five decades, our hairdressing organisation has become internationally famous; hairdressing in countries as far afield as America, Japan and Scandinavia as well as throughout Europe.

The John Belfield International Product Range is available at this salon, and also by mail order online at www.johnbelfield.co.uk

All members of our team are employed by John Belfield International - we are NOT a chair renting salon.
